Wrap Up from 2019 Zones Select Camp!

Jacques Rathle and Collin Klingman recently returned from the Southern Zone Select Camp in Louisville, Kentucky. They were chosen by USA Swimming based on their 2018 Summer Long Course performances. Here is what they had to say!

Collin: The National Zone Select Camp was very fun and a good learning experience. Talking about nutrition, goal setting, and getting to listen to Kelsie Worrell talk about her swimming career, made the camp more interesting. The practices were very fun and entertaining, especially racing each other the last day and becoming part of Team USA.

Jacques: Much of the camp focus was on how to get better in and out of the pool and stressed the importance of a team. They really wanted us to bond and also showed us things outside the water to improve such as nutrition and recovery methods. They taught us how what you can do out of the water really impacts what you can do in the water.
